

QUEEN ELIZABETH'S GRAMMAR, ALFORD

An 11-18 Co-educational Grammar School
Number on roll: 529 (including 93 in the sixth form)

Subject Leader for Modern Foreign Languages Required for September 2024

We are looking to appoint an experienced teacher of modern foreign languages to lead our department from September 2024. We need an enthusiastic practitioner with recent experience of teaching this subject in mainstream or special schools, who can plan and adapt the curriculum for this subject to meet the needs of our students. We currently teach three languages at the school with every student studying one language to GCSE. The department also offers various cultural activities and contributes to the International Schools programme. The successful candidate will:

- Be well qualified and an experienced teacher.
- Have high expectations.
- Have extensive knowledge of the subject and be suitably qualified to teach French to A Level with the ability to teach a second language (ideally Spanish).
- Have the ability to inspire and motivate students and colleagues.
- Have a track record of forming very good working relationships with pupils, parents and staff.

Queen Elizabeth's is a Selective Academy, currently having 529 pupils on roll and is located in the small, rural town of Alford. Queen Elizabeth's is a very friendly and caring community in which pupils are known and valued individually. The atmosphere is calm, happy and purposeful; standards of attainment, behaviour and dress are high, and we are proud of our reputation as one of the top schools in the East Midlands whilst offering a holistic, supportive approach to education.

For further details about the school please visit our website, <http://www.queenelizabeths.co.uk/> www.qegs.co.uk For an application form either contact Mrs A Duff (PA to the Headteacher) on 01507 462403 or a.duff@queenelizabeths.co.uk or use the form on our website.

The deadline for applications is Friday 10 May at 12 noon.

Queen Elizabeth's Grammar is committed to safer recruitment practice and pre-employment checks in line with KCSIE 2023 will be undertaken before any appointment is confirmed. The school is committed to safeguarding and promoting the welfare of children and young people and expects all staff and volunteers to share this commitment. The post is subject to an enhanced Disclosures and Barring Service clearance. In accordance with Part 7 of the Immigration Act 2016 (Fluency Duty), the ability to converse at ease with customers and provide advice in accurate spoken English is essential for the post.
