Dear Student

Welcome back! I hope you managed to celebrate the Easter break albeit in a different way.

By now you should be familiar with online study groups and actively participating, should you be experiencing difficulties, please do let us know.

To support you whilst Alford Library may be closed at present, you and your family can still access a range of free online library resources using your Lincolnshire library card number and PIN including ebooks, eaudiobooks, emagazines and emusic. Visit <http://bit.ly/lincslibs> and choose from the online resources menu on the right hand side of the page.

If you are not already a member of the library you can join online at <http://bit.ly/LincslibsJoin> and get a temporary membership number and PIN that will give you access to all their fabulous resources. You can also follow them @Lincslibraries on Facebook and Twitter and join in with activities such as a virtual Lego Club and Craft Club.

Other extra curricula activities which might interest and inspire you:

Lincolnshire Music Service have gone online LMSdigiteach, although demand has been high, check for free places at: twitter@LMSLincsMusic, Facebook: LincsMusicService or Instagram: LincsMusic

The Lincolnshire School Games programme organised by Active Lincolnshire and the School Games Organisers of Lincolnshire is a hugely popular programme:

And, don't forget the School Song Project to rewrite the school song. Your school needs you!

As ever, we as a school stand united within our school community. Please do continue to get in contact through the reception email as you need us.

Stay safe online together.

Cor unum, via una
